NORTHERN TRIBUNE.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 23, 1882.

Dedication Ball.

The masonic fraternity are perfecting arrangements for making their dedication party on New Years night, the grandest success of the season. What this means, those who have enjoyed their pleasant parties in the past well know. That it is an assured success, a glance at the personal of the following committees, having the matter in charge, will show:

Committee on arrangements—J. P. Sutton, George G. Wharton, Joseph Cochran, Schuller Farrel and C. W. Farr.

Committee on invitations—George W. Bell, E. O. Penny, J. C. Wooster and Robert Robinson.

Committee on reception—Will C. Whiting, Chas. F. Southam, W. G. Boggs and Chas. H. Nuite.

The committees have been actively at work and have nearly all the arrangements perfected. J. L. Jewell has charge of the banquet, which is a guarantee that it will meet the requirements of the occasion. Sweet's full orchestra will furnish the music, and everything indicates one of the most delightful occasions ever enjoyed in Cheboygan. As stated last week, A. M. Clark, Grand Visitor and Lecturer of the order of Michigan has promised to be present and deliver the dedicatory address.

The newly-elected officers will be installed the same evening, and the ceremony will commence promptly at 8 o'clock. The installation and dedication will probably occupy from an hour to an hour and a quarter, immediately after which the banquet will be served, and the guests given ample opportunity to satisfy any longings they may have in that direction. After the banquet the dance and other social enjoyments of the evening. The large hall will be devoted to the dance and the parlors to the banquet and social amusement of such as do not desire to join in the dance. The price of tickets has been fixed at $3.00, which, it is estimated, will be barely sufficient to cover the expenses of the occasion.

That Contested Election.

The St. Ignace Free Press, W. P. Preston's organ, has had considerable to say about fraud in Schoolcraft county in connection with the recent election of Representative to the Legislature from that district, in which W. P. Preston was defeated by W. M. Colwell, of Manistique. In regard to the matter, Major Clark, of the Manistique Pioneer, has this to say, which shows that, in his opinion, the less the Democrats say about fraud the better it will be for them:

The threat that Preston will contest Mr. Colwell's seat has nothing in it but bluff. Let him undertake it if he wants to. If any fraud was committed in the district they were perpetrated in the interest of W. P. Preston. Put that in your pipe and smoke it. We are saying what we know to be a fact. No one is frightened by these brayings that emanate from the ancient village under the hill. In one township where certain papers alleged fraud, all the votes were for Preston. Possibly that paper states the truth; but we fail to see why Preston should wince over that particular precinct. Another agent, like Gallagher, might have cut W. P. out of any votes in the west part of the district. Money and whisky does not always succeed.

Firemen's Ball.

A special meeting of Cheboygan Fire Co. No. 1 was held at their hall last Monday evening, at which it was decided to give a party at the Town Hall, on Tuesday evening of next week. The object of the party is to raise money to pay a balance of liabilities incurred at the celebration of the Fourth of July. It will be remembered that the company took charge of the celebration and made a grand success of it. In doing so, notwithstanding the liberal subscriptions of our citizens, they found when they came to settle the bills, that they were lacking about $75 to enable them to pay all costs. We trust our citizens will bear this in mind and respond to their call by liberally patronizing them on this occasion. In addition to the incentive of aiding them in this direction all may be assured of a very enjoyable evening.

How to Save.

All hard workers are subject to bilious attacks which may end in serious illness. Parker's Ginger Tonic will keep the liver and kidneys active, and by preventing the attack save much sickness, loss of time and expense. Delay at such times means danger.—Detroit Press. See other column.

Charges Refuted.

The Grand Rapids Times published a statement seriously affecting Senator Ferry's private character. In reply Messrs. F. Tenney & Co., proprietors of the National hotel, send to the Times a letter in which they say:

We have read an article headed "Is Ferry Fit?" in the December 7th issue of your paper, in which you state that "Thomas W. Ferry was knocked down in the National hotel at Washington by a man named Cooper, who charged that the senator had insulted Mrs. Cooper and her daughter."

As Senator Ferry has been a guest of our house, the National, during sessions of Congress ever since we have been its proprietors (now about 12 years), we have the best opportunities of observing his daily deportment. Having known him so long and so favorably as guest, and feeling assured that he has been greatly misrepresented, we deem it our duty to say that your statement quoted has no foundation in fact. With a house full of guests, no such act as you allege of "being knocked down in the National hotel at Washington by a man named Cooper" could have occurred without our knowledge or that of some of our guests or employees. None of them at the time this act was alleged to have been done believed there was any truth in it.

You also state in your article, "That assertions are made to the effect that Senator Ferry has been drunk repeatedly, and that letters have been received, verified by high authority, stating that Ferry has been put to bed hopelessly intoxicated, by employees of the National hotel at Washington."

We have never seen or known Senator Ferry drink liquor, nor have we ever heard any person say that any one else ever did, nor has Senator Ferry been "put to bed hopelessly intoxicated," or in any wise under the influence of drink.

We deem it simple duty to state these facts, and we take pleasure in stating further that no guest of the National has comport himself with more sobriety and respectable behavior than Senator Ferry. His high standing in Washington as a gentleman and his perfect decorum in life are unquestioned and unassailable. It may not be improper to add that, politically we are not in sympathy with Senator Ferry.

A Rough Experience.

John H. Waterman returned home from his camp, near Trowbridge station, Thursday evening and reports his lumbering operations moving satisfactorily. They had a rather rough experience in getting started. He with his crew went up Monday of last week and arrived at their camp late in the evening, in a blinding snow storm. They found their shanty had been completely gutted, doors, floors, benches, bunks, tables, &c. had been converted into firewood by various parties who had sheltered there since they last vacated the camp. The windows had been wantonly destroyed and the building was not much better than a snow drift, for a lodging place, but they had to make the best of it and make themselves as comfortable as possible. To make matters more uncomfortable, a carload of supplies, upon which they depended for subsistence, got blocked by the snow on the track and did not arrive until several days later, and then only after considerable telegraphing had been done to hurry it up. The men were obliged to forage around among the settlers in that region, and borrow enough of the necessities of life to subsist on until the car arrived. In the mean time Mr. Waterman had been ordering windows and having the quarters put in shape so that when the provider arrived they were ready for business and when he left they had got well started, and the crew consisting of 16 men and four teams were putting in logs at the rate of about 24,000 feet per day. He reports the snow, upon his arrival, about two feet deep, but says the soft weather has settled it fully one half.

Masonic Election.

The annual election of officers for Cheboygan Lodge, No. 283, F. & A. M. took place at the Masonic Hall, Wednesday evening, resulting in the selection of the following officials:

W. M.—George G. Wharton.
S. W.—Wm. G. Boggs.
J. W.—E. O. Penny.
Treasurer—J. B. McArthur.
Secretary—J. P. Sutton.
S. D.—B. H. Begole.
J. D.—W. H. Daly.

Tyler and stewards to be appointed. The installation will take place New Year's night in connection with the dedicatory services of their new hall.

Worth Remembering.

Now that the good times are again upon us, it is worth remembering that no one can enjoy the pleasantest surroundings in bad health. There are hundreds of miserable people going about to-day with disordered stomach, liver or kidneys, when a bottle of Parker's Ginger Tonic would do them more good than all the medicines they have ever tried.

CHILDREN'S CHRISTMAS.

BY EARNEST.

Christmas is coming to the children,
I know, for I hear their angels sing,
In the solemn hush of midnight,
"Hosanna to the King."

For a moment, the earthly veil uplifted,
Dear mother's angel face I see
Uplifted by adoring spirits,
She turns that face to me.

In all her bright celestial beauty,
A jewel from the master's crown,
From the midst of that group of children's angels,
In glory shining down.

Then again the earth cloud intervening,
Hides the sweet vision from my sight,
But I follow in thought the heavenly dwellers,
On their swift homeward flight.

To my fancy the snow flakes seem bright
mistives,
Shaken from the lustre of their wings,
To foretell the season of glad giving,
The birth-day of the king.

Christmas is coming to the children,
I think, when I see the white flakes fall,
Mother on earth, in heaven smiling,
Christmas to all.

STATE NEWS.

During the month of November 3,842 immigrants entered the United States at Port Huron.

At Niles, last Monday was next to the coldest day of the season, the thermometer marking 10 degrees below zero.

A garpike 18 inches long came through the water pipes at Niles, from Barron Lake four miles away, and now decorates the aquarium at the city post-office.

A writer at Old Mission figures up the value of fruit sold from the Grand Traverse peninsula this year at over $34,000. It was also an "off year" for fruit.

The contract has been let for building a ten-mile section of the Marquette, Houghton & Ontonagon railroad extension between Houghton and L'Anse. The entire 30 miles will probably be ready for service early next fall.

The slaughter of the Michigan pine is being waged with all the modern improvements. One of the Grand Haven firms operating at Six Lakes not only has a steam log railway, but lights up the camps, railways, etc. by means of street lamps.

After two years constant pumping the bottom has been reached at the long-flooded and abandoned old National mine near Ontonagon and all the water taken out. Active operations will soon begin at the mine, which has a 600-foot shaft and a rich supply of mineral.

The Saginaw City saw mills have cut 290,623,029 feet of pine this season; the East Saginaw mills 161,135,442 feet, and the mills at Bay City and thereabouts 561,192,740 feet. Thus the total cut in Saginaw valley is 1,012,915,211 feet. The heaviest cut in any previous year was that of 1881, which was 982,329,317 feet. There was also 278,514,000 shingles made in the valley this year.

An article in the Northwestern Mining News shows that during the past year five Michigan mining companies have paid their stockholders $340,000 more than the actual paid-up capital of the companies. They are the Atlantic, Calumet & Hecla, Central, Osceola, and Quincy. Since they were opened these mines have paid nearly 11 times the amount of their paid-up capital, and have paid one-fifth of the dividends paid by all mining companies in the United States during the past year.
